Tech: Thank you for calling Blendtec, my name is Shari, how may I assist you?

Customer: Hi, I have a stupid question for you.

Tech: Okay.

Customer: And you can roll your eyes. I bought a set of these two Blendtecs at Costco, and I understand that there's a rebate, but gosh, I love this product and I don't know, here's the part that's stupid. I don't know if I want to return it if the recall risk of having a fire or whatever is really low. I'd rather keep my product.

Tech: Hold on, I think you got the wrong company 'cause Blendtec doesn't have any recalls. Are you trying to get BlendJet?

Customer: Oh, maybe it is BlendJet.

Tech: Yes.

Customer: Oh, okay. So, I have the wrong people?

Tech: Yes.

Customer: Okay.

Tech: Do you want their number?

Customer: Actually, I'll look it up. I took this out of my directory. I must have called this number before and went oh, it's the wrong number, well, I'll save it. Okay, well, no, I'll look for the other thing. Thank you very much.

Tech: You're very welcome.

Customer: [UNINTELLIGIBLE] think I'm crazy.

Tech: Have a good one.

Customer: Okay, bye-bye.

Tech: Bye-bye.
